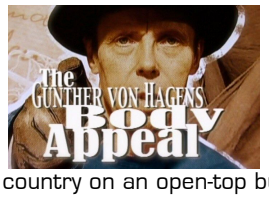
FILMS & DOCUMENTARIES

THE GUNTHER VON HAGENS BODY APPEAL [1HR]

FIREFLY for MORE 4



Following the success of the Gunther Von Hagens anatomy series, Sir Jeremy Metters, then Her Majesty's Inspector of Anatomy, approached Firefly to see if it could help with the chronic shortage of body donors for medical training. Firefly proposed a film to Channel 4 with Gunther travelling round the country on an open-top bus with 12 medical students canvassing for donors. It was 5 weeks from commission to transmission. Within a week of the broadcast there had been 600 new body donor applications.

THE BIG RACE

GRANADA for ITV

Director and producer of this 8 part documentary series following the fortunes of celebrities and experts as they journeyed from London to New York in 6 Ford Mondeos and 2 Ford Mavericks. The expedition began on the south bank as Big Ben struck 12, through the channel tunnel before it was opened, and then right across Europe and Russia, the Bering Strait, Alaska and North America. The journey ended with a reception at the U.N.

It was intended that this would be a 7 part series, but when the journey was delayed by the wrong weather at the Bering Strait, ITV extended the series by a week, so high were the viewing figures,
